Six internationally renowned artists will perform a wide variety of classical Korean and Western instrumental music, including masterpieces by Mozart, Beethoven, Brahms, Saint-Saens, Rachmaninoff, Wieniawski and Astor Piazzola. Violinist Desiree Ruhstrat, Cellist David Cunliffe and Pianist Myung Hee Chung all made their professional debuts when very young, and attended the prestigious Curtis Institute of Music, Royal College of Music, and Juilliard School, respectively. The Tibor Varga, Carl Flesch, Lady Barbirolli, William Kapell, and Gina Bachauer International Competitions are a just few of the awards that they have earned over the years. They have also soloed with the Chicago, Berlin Radio and Baltimore Symphony Orchestras, and have been active chamber musicians as members of the Lincoln and the Seraphin Trios. Ms. Desiree Ruhstrat and Mr. David Cunliffe are faculty members at the Music Institute of Chicago. Prof. Myung Hee Chung is the head of the Keyboard Program at the University of Wisconsin - Whitewater.

Hyun Chung Kim, Sojung Hong, and Jeong Soo Kim are all alumni of the Seoul National University in Korea. Prof. Hong and Prof. J.S. Kim, who teach at Judson University and Northern Illinois University, respectively, received their doctorate degrees from the University of Illinois and the Eastman School of Music. Hyun Chung Kim will be performing a traditional Korean solo on the Korean bamboo flute, also known as the Dae Geum. The piece is meant to depict the serenity of an autumn evening. Meanwhile, professors Hong and Kim will be performing exciting works by Copland and Brahms on piano four hands. Please visit the website of www.chicagobulletin.com for additional information.
